About the UK Key Advances Series

The UK Key Advances in Clinical Practice Series is a major, annually recurring activity designed to catalogue current scientific evidence and expert clinical opinion for the investigation and management of disease, setting this knowledge within the context of service organisation and delivery and with reference to the modern policy environment of the NHS. The projects are organised in collaboration with medical Royal Colleges and specialist clinical societies and provide material of immediate practical significance to continuing professional development and NHS decision making. The Series is currently in its 9th successful annual cycle.

About this symposium

The symposium has been designed to enable a comprehensive examination of recent advances in the investigation and management of head and neck cancer in the UK, including a review of the epidemiology of HNC, advances in histopathological examination and reporting, FNA of nodal metastases, advances in diagnostic radiology, a major focus on the investigation of pharyngeal carcinoma and oral cavity carcinomas and a focus on radiotherapy planning, advances in chemoradiation, quality of life and the ethics of facial reconstruction.

Who should attend?

Consultants in oncology, head and neck, oral, ENT, maxillofacial surgery, histopathology and diagnostic radiology and non-consultant career grades/staff grades across these specialties, clinical nurse specialists and oncology pharmacists, consultants in public health medicine, members of the pharmaceutical industry and all those colleagues with a responsibility for, or interest in, the effective management of head and neck cancer.

Venue

The Royal College of Pathologists, 2 Carlton House Terrace, London SW1

Fee and payment

The fee for attendance is £189 (special rate for nurses and pharmacists £149). An 'early bird' reduction is available – please see the Registration Form overleaf for full details. Fees include lunch, mid session refreshments and all conference materials. Cheques should be made payable to Key Advances Ltd and sent to the full address shown at the bottom of the Registration Form overleaf. Payments from abroad should be by international bankers' draft or money order in pounds sterling drawn on a UK bank.
